If a Nominated Person has no such proxy appointment right or does not wish to exercise it, he/she may, under any such agreement, have a right to give instructions to the Shareholder as to the exercise of voting rights. Directors

Resolutions 4 to 12: Under the UK Corporate Governance Code (the 'Code'), section B.7.1 states that all Directors of FTSE 350 companies should be subject to annual reappointment by Shareholders. The Company follows this provision of the Code. The Directors covered by Resolutions 4 to 12 were each reappointed as Directors at last year's annual general meeting and are now standing for their annual reappointment under this provision. Following the annual performance evaluation of all Directors (which, in the case of Sir David Omand, who has been on the Board for nine years and whose current three-year term of appointment is due to expire at this year's Annual General Meeting, was particularly rigorous), the Board is satisfied that each Director continues to be effective and to demonstrate commitment to his or her role. Accordingly, the Board unanimously recommends their reappointment. Their biographical details are set out on pages 86 and 87 of the Annual Report (a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.babcockinternational.com). The Board considers each of the Non-Executive Directors standing for reappointment named in Resolutions 8 to 12 to be independent.

Resolutions 13 and 14: Under section B.7.1 of the Code and article 123 of the Company's Articles, all Directors appointed by the Board since the date of the last annual general meeting should be subject to election by Shareholders at the first annual general meeting after their appointment. Accordingly, Kjersti VMklund and Lucy Dimes, appointed to the Board on 1 April 2018, will be proposed for election by shareholders. The Nominations Committee led the process of identifying and
